Parents and carers are key influencers on their children's vision of what their future career could look like. They are a great source of support in guiding their children in their career decision making.

Careermag provides insights on sectors/industries and careers.

In this edition, you can read about exam stress, preparing young people for interviews, and why we need to start talking about money.

The image shows the cover of the 'Careermag for Parents' magazine. The cover is purple and features the Careermag logo at the top. Below the logo, it says 'FOR PARENTS' and 'Talk careers with your child'. A list of topics is provided: 'A comprehensive guide featuring: Interview prep, Why we need to get talking about money, Work readiness & Wellbeing, Encouraging your child to take up work experience, Post 16 & 18 options, Exam stress, & MUCH MORE!'. The Pearson logo is also visible. The cover features a photograph of a woman and a young girl looking at a laptop. At the bottom, there are logos for PXL, Skills Academies, and NCW, along with the text 'Careermag for Parents' and 'A Pearson Education'.
